95th Entry – Web Site

Hi Everyone,

Well with the loss of John Pollock we have also lost our web master for the 95th Entry Web Site. John both maintained the website in “WordPress” and hosted it within his web hosting business.

We still have the web site name <https://95thhalton.com>. However John had taken the site off-line to carry out some improvement he did not specify. He passed me some details but frankly I have no idea how to access the area where our website would be held. I would have thought there would have been a backup that could have been restored.

If anyone out there can help I would be grateful. That said, I guess we would have to find a new host which will cost money. (I paid the cost of hosting and the web site name fee until John took the website off my hands.) Even if we find a non-Entry web techie to help, that person will need payment.

If anyone out there can wave a magic wand. Please get in touch with me.

Best Regards

Dusty
